

Syngenta Foundation

Syngenta Foundation for Sustainable Agriculture is an international non-profit organization that focuses on supporting the productivity of small-scale farmers in developing countries around the world. The mission is to create value for resource-poor small farmers in developing countries through innovation in sustainable agriculture and the activation of value chains.

Syngenta Foundation for Sustainable Agriculture Indonesia is looking for a suitable candidate to fill up the position of Farmer Support System Assistant.

Job Summary

To support the FSS Stream projects that SFSA will implement in Indonesia. The role will require analysis of the farming operations, farm management, contract farming, monitoring and recording project activities, seek potential market linkage, and to support participating communities (individuals, groups or cooperatives) challenged by different vulnerabilities so that they can understand and address their problems for their betterment through program practices. It is the duty of the FSSA to inspire the individuals or groups so that they can make positive changes in their lives by joining the FSS programs.

Roles and responsibility

- Involvement in base line studies and assessment of the initial income status of member growers
- Work with line supervisor to design and implement activities which favorably address the each programs and development needs of project's participants, their families and communities
- Facilitate identification and implementation of appropriate strategies to increase the capacity of farmer members
- He will facilitate strengthening of sustainable agricultural aspects of farmer community groups or farmer associations, direct farmer network through development of appropriate implementation and management structures and tools
- Track, monitor, compile and summarize project progress and provide regular updates to the line supervisor
- To participate actively and effectively in the project teams as required making necessary actions and recommendations
- To work closely with all project members where relevant and appropriate
- To maintain the company's highest standard of professionalism at all times

Reporting

S/he will be reportable to the respective SFSA FSS Stream and Indonesia Program Director. S/he is expected to maintain working relationship with his/her peers in team.

Required qualification and competencies:

- D3 or S1 from Faculty of Agriculture, Agribusiness, Management, Economics or other related majors
- Have a good communication & interpersonal skill
- Preferably have an experience in managing community/NGO/FMCG
- Willing to be placed in Mojokerto or Malang Area – Jawa Timur with 1 year contract
- Must be computer literate in Microsoft Office (Excel, Word, and Outlook)

An attractive salary package will be offered based on experience and qualifications.

Application Instruction:

Only those who meet the above requirements are requested to email their CV with one recent colored photograph and a copy of last educational certificate & transcript to ronny.setyawan@syngenta.com mentioning the position applied on the subject line.